December 11, 2013

This letter is to testify that I witnessed Detectives Ganno and Peck showing up at my home (64-21B, 224th Street , Bayside , NY 11364) on Dec. 2 2013 at around 7:30 PM.; claiming that they had an outstanding warrant dating back to 2007 for Lyna Woo. When asked to show the warrant, Detective Ganno, flashed a paper with Lyna Woo in a folder. They told me that they were taking Lyna in for that warrant. I told Lyna to go with them.

Initially we called the Detectives to come over our home to discuss the menacing and constant harassing ,instigating as well as the threat made by her "Bronx Posse" and the attempt to hit me with a hair out in the court yard where other neighbors had witnessed, done by our neighbor, Janine Martinez Louis (64-25A, 224th Street, Bayside, NY 11364), instead the table was turned on us.

Since then, we had gone to every Courts houses in every borough to check to see if there was an outstanding warrant on Lyna Woo. All turned out negative. It seems like there was a false arrest warrant to arrest and false allege charges were put on Lyna. Last year, we did report to CCRB against 111 precincts at Bayside for bias, where both Detectives are stationed at now.

Thank You,

Jeff Woo

ORDER TO AMEND

13 Civ. 8695 (LAP)

LORETTA A. PRESKA, Chief United States District Judge:

Plaintiff, proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, filed this complaint alleging false arrest and harassment. For the following reasons, Plaintiff is directed to amend her complaint.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

The Court has the authority to screen sua sponte an IFP complaint at any time and must dismiss the complaint, or portion thereof, that is frivolous or malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B); see Livingston v. Adirondack Beverage Co., 141 F.3d 434, 437 (2d Cir. 1998). While the law mandates dismissal on any of these grounds, district courts “remain obligated to construe a pro se complaint liberally.” Harris v. Mills, 572 F.3d 66, 72 (2d Cir. 2009). Thus, pro se complaints should be read with “special solicitude” and should be interpreted to raise the “strongest [claims] that they suggest.” Triestman v. Fed. Bureau of Prisons, 470 F.3d 471, 474-75 (2d Cir. 2006) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted).

BACKGROUND

The complaint, written in broken English, is difficult to decipher. It arises out of a longstanding dispute between Plaintiff, her ex-husband/boyfriend Jeff Woo (“Woo”), and a neighbor of Woo’s, Jeanette Martinez.¹ Woo resides in Bayside, Queens, and Plaintiff resides with him “part-time.” It is not clear where Plaintiff resides the rest of the time.² Both Plaintiff and Woo recount numerous instances when Martinez harassed them and threatened to harm them physically or have other individuals harm them. Plaintiff and Woo have filed criminal complaints against Martinez, and vice versa.

It appears that a warrant was issued against Plaintiff in 2007 arising out of a complaint that Martinez filed against her; Plaintiff may be claiming that the 2007 warrant was disposed of in some manner. After a series of confrontations between Plaintiff, Woo, and Martinez in November 2013, it may be that Plaintiff was arrested on the 2007 warrant and detained for twenty-seven hours. Named as Defendants are Detective Vincint Gonna and Martinez. Since filing this complaint, Plaintiff has submitted to the court additional documents and a letter with an affidavit attached.

DISCUSSION

A. False Arrest Claim

The Court construes the complaint to allege, under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, that the detective violated Plaintiff’s constitutional rights by falsely arresting her. To state a § 1983 claim, Plaintiff must allege that (1) a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) the right was violated by a person acting under the color of state law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

The complaint does not clearly set forth what occurred. Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires plaintiffs to make “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” The Supreme Court has held that this rule requires a plaintiff to provide some details about what each defendant did or failed to do. See Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (citing Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007)). It is not enough for a complaint to state that the defendant unlawfully harmed the plaintiff. Id. (citing Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555). A complaint must include “factual enhancement” of the plaintiff’s legal claims; in other words, a complaint must include some background information about how the defendant harmed the plaintiff. Id. (citing Twombly, 550 U.S. at 557). To state a claim for relief, a complaint must contain enough background facts to allow the Court to reasonably infer that each defendant is liable to the plaintiff. Id. (citing Twombly, 550 U.S. at 556).

Plaintiff’s complaint does not comply with this standard because she does not clearly explain what occurred. Plaintiff asserts that she was falsely arrested, but it is not completely clear what Plaintiff is saying about the 2007 warrant.³ In addition, as a prerequisite to an award of damages under § 1983, a plaintiff must allege the personal involvement of the defendants in an alleged constitutional deprivation. Farrell v. Burke, 449 F.3d 470, 484 (2d Cir. 2006). Plaintiff does not explain how Detective Gonna was personally involved in violating her constitutional rights.⁴

B. Harassment Claim

Plaintiff’s complaint may be construed as alleging a state law harassment claim against Martinez. Because it is unclear at this stage whether Plaintiff can state a viable federal claim, the Court will reserve judgment on whether to exercise its supplemental jurisdiction over any state law claims. See generally 28 U.S.C. § 1367 (2006); Valencia ex rel. Franco v. Lee, 316 F.3d 299, 305 (2d Cir. 2003) (holding that district court’s exercise of supplemental jurisdiction over state-law claims after it had dismissed all federal claims was abuse of discretion).

³ To state a false arrest claim under New York law, a plaintiff must allege that the defendant “intentionally confined [her] without his consent and without justification.” Wevant v. Oksel, 101 F.3d 845, 852 (2d Cir. 1996). “The existence of probable cause to arrest constitutes justification and ‘is a complete defense to an action for false arrest.’” Bernard v. United States, 25 F.3d 98, 102 (2d Cir. 1994).

⁴ Plaintiff should refrain from filing document piecemeal. At this stage, Plaintiff is not required to prove the truth of her allegations; she need only provide a clear recitation of what occurred and what relief she seeks.

LEAVE TO AMEND

The Plaintiff is granted leave to amend her complaint consistent with this order. For each of the Plaintiff's claims, the amended complaint should explain the following to the best of the Plaintiff's knowledge:

- (a) the names and titles of all relevant persons;
- (b) the date, time and location of each event;
- (c) what each defendant did or failed to do;
- (d) how each defendant's acts or failures to act harmed the Plaintiff;
- (e) the law or constitutional right that is the basis for the Plaintiff's claims;
- (f) any other facts that support the Plaintiff's claims; and
- (g) relief the Plaintiff seeks from the Court.

The amended complaint will completely replace the original complaint. For that reason, the amended complaint should contain all the information necessary to make a short, plain statement explaining why the Plaintiff is entitled to relief against each defendant.

CONCLUSION

The Court directs the Clerk of Court to assign this matter to my docket, mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff, and to note service on the docket. Plaintiff is directed to file an amended complaint containing the information specified above. The amended complaint must be submitted to this Court's Pro Se Office within sixty days of the date of this order, be captioned as an "AMENDED COMPLAINT," and bear the same docket number as this order. An Amended Complaint form, which Plaintiff should complete as specified above, is attached to this order. No summons will issue at this time. If Plaintiff fails to comply within the time allowed, and cannot show good cause to excuse such failure, the complaint will be dismissed for failure to state a claim on which relief can be granted.

The Court certifies under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. See Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962).

Time: 1:29 pm

I want to make a strong complaint regarding my neighbor (~~69-25A~~ ^{224th St.}). I believed her name is Janine. She had been threatening me lately and making posture of attacking me and my girl friend.

This all started last year when I moved in not so long ago. My girl friend ^{Lynwood} and I was celebrating Thanksgiving and for some reason she has issued with me being with my girl friend. Verbal argument ensued. Since I wanted to defuse the issue I apologized to her. Apparently, she thinks I was some weakly or ~~punk~~, which she called me that last night. Anyway, ~~whenever~~ whenever I brought my girl friend, she tried to restrict our movement or "put a check" on us. She would have her door open to instigate a fight or pretend to walk her dog to start a confrontation.

I tried to defuse it by constantly apologizing, even ~~ough~~ Candy for her children to calm the situation down. Of course, this doesn't prevent her from continuing. About 2 and half weeks away, when my girlfriend ~~at~~ pull up in front of our apartment to look for parking, she was there talking to someone and started ~~on~~ a fight with my girlfriend again. When my girlfriend ~~hollered~~ "let's go home"; she intercepted the conversation and claimed that "it was her lover".

-The next morning, when we ~~go~~ went to ^{our} get our car, there was a scratch on my door. It was vandalized. ~~I~~

Just last week she brought her posée from the Bronx to threaten me. A Big Puerto Rican Man and ~~what she~~ a lady who claimed to be her sister, that was last Saturday. Then on last Sunday, she brought her black man, whom she had two kids with. to come and threaten me too. I politely apologized to avoid confrontation. ~~there~~,

Now, last night when I drove ~~up to~~ in front of my apt., she was there and her door wide open. The minute she saw, my girl around and myself, she went into a frenzy. she was all ghetto, using her hand gestures and calling me "punk and chink" and how she told me not to bring my girl.

I told her that, she was nobody to me. she don't own the building or pay my rent, how dare she restrict or check on me! who I see or ~~what~~ ^{is my business} eat. she told me that she was going to "fuck me" up, she said "I ~~was~~ not still scared, huh". she was going to bring her posse back. I told ^{her to} bring it on. so, she ran to a metal chair that was in front of the door step and picked it up and ~~tried~~ to hit me. I told her that I was going home her arrested.

she paused and stormed back to her apartment. ~~apparently~~ apparently she realized what she did, so she tried to cover her track by calling the cops.

The cops came and never even rang my door bell. The cops apparently must told her that she doesn't have any rights to restrict or check on other people. First ~~all~~ of all, I'm not her man, she does not own me. Beside, she screamed so loud that all the neighbors heard ~~her~~ ^{her}. and in fact, one neighbor came out and saw her crazy reactions.

Any way my complaint is, I need to document this, I don't want my house to be robbed by these low life. my car had been vandalized already. Thanksgiving is coming, she had said and promise she will bring her posse. AS a management of this premises, you have an obligation of

I will be going to the police later this afternoon to file a harassment & complain after work. However, I need this to clearly document that anything happen to my family or loved or or myself or my property. This crazy woman is the person who is involved and charged. she is stalking me and completely obsessed with us one nothing.

Again, I reiterate, this housing management has an obligation to protect the well being of its tenants. I have a psycho and a ghetto thugs living next to me.

Thank you

This letter is to confirm that I, Jeff Woo, bared witness to the fact that Lyna Woo never spat at Janine Martinez Louis, on November 22, 2012 or at any time. Lyna was inside my house, we were cooking Turkey together. It was a Thanksgiving weekends. Whatever, Ms. Louis claimed is an outright lie and defamation of character.

Thank You

To whom it may concern;

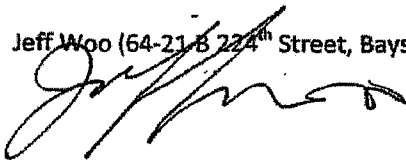

I am formally writing to request a transfer due to multiple incidents that happened with my neighbor, Janine Martinez (64-25 Apt# A 224th Street). All the incidents are well documented on the writing I had previously presented to Building Management. Anyway, on December 2, Janine was arrested after I reported to the Police for attempting to hit me with a chair and to bar my family member from coming to my own home. An order of protection was also issued. She cannot come near me.

Due to these incidents, I do not feel safe around my own home. Even though she had tone down, because of the Court order, I know that she is vindictive and will bring back her "Bronx Posse" when the weather warm up again during spring and summer of 2014. During that time, it is harder to avoid contact when everyone tends to be outside to enjoy the weather. In addition, I am also uneasy about my home possibly getting rob because there are times, I have to go on business trip for several days. I also come home late on most days. Janine knew my schedule very well. She had been observing me for well over a year. The reason this might possibly occur is that, after one of my altercation with Janine, the next day my car was vandalized. It was obvious that she did it, but without evidence I cannot accuse her. To take proactive measure, I need to move or transfers to get out of this "Soap opera" nightmare of getting rob or being a victim of her "Posse" attacks.

As a Building Management (Mid Queens LP) the responsibilities of the safety of the tenants fall upon you. I hope you can understand my situation.

Thank you for corporations;

Jeff Woo (64-21 B 224th Street, Bayside, NY 11364)

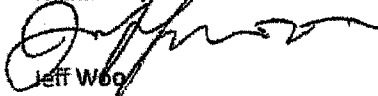

December 11, 2013

This letter is to testify that I witnessed Detectives Ganno and Peck showing up at my home (64-21B, 224th Street , Bayside , NY 11364) on Dec. 2 2013 at around 7:30 PM.; claiming that they had an outstanding warrant dating back to 2007 for Lyna Woo. When asked to show the warrant, Detective Ganno, flashed a paper with Lyna Woo in a folder. They told me that they were taking Lyna in for that warrant. I told Lyna to go with them.

Initially we called the Detectives to come over our home to discuss the menacing and constant harassing ,instigating as well as the threat made by her "Bronx Posse" and the attempt to hit me with a hair out in the court yard where other neighbors had witnessed, done by our neighbor, Janine Martinez Louis (64-25A, 224th Street, Bayside, NY 11364), instead the table was turned on us.

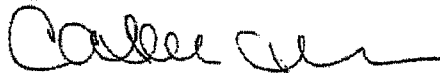

Since then, we had gone to every Courts houses in every borough to check to see if there was an outstanding warrant on Lyna Woo. All turned out negative. It seems like there was a false arrest warrant to arrest and false allege charges were put on Lyna. Last year, we did report to CCRB against 111 precincts at Bayside for bias, where both Detectives are stationed at now.

Thank You,

Jeff Woo

To whom it may concern:

This letter is to confirm that Lyna Woo resides along with me (Jeff Woo) part-time at 64-21 224th Street, Bayside, NY 11364, the current lease holder. Miss Janine Martinez, the next door neighbor was the real instigator and trouble maker who menaced and stalked, Lyna Woo my ex-wife, whom I am rekindling the relationship right now. I have documented all these incidents that Miss Martinez instigated and threaten myself and Lyna. On Nov. 14, 2013, at around 7pm we pulled our car over the street next to our house, Lyna waited inside the car so I can put away the grocery first before we looked for parking. During that time Miss Martinez was talking the next door neighbor on the platform. The minute she saw us, she started interrupting and intercepting our conversation. When Lyna said "let's go lover", Janine purposely trying to instigate a fight by shouting "He is my lover", referring to me (this can be verified if you interviewed the neighbor, who is also her friend. That is if the neighbor willing to tell the truth). To defuse this, I quickly hopped on the car and drove off. On that weekend (Nov. 16 and Nov. 17), Janine brought her so called "Bronx Posse" to threaten to Lyna and myself. Lyna was not present at my house. On Saturday, she brought her sister and big Spanish man, telling me what to do if I don't comply with their wish of not letting Lyna comes to my house. Otherwise, they were going to "fuck us up". Then on Sunday, a big black man came to me threaten to do the same thing. That moment I felt my life and Lyna may be in danger. I called Lyna and told her to not to come on this following Thursday, Nov. 21, 2013 instead only to come on Sunday, Nov. 24 2013, hoping defused and let the situation calm. Lyna normally comes to my house on Thursday's and Sunday's night. Knowing our schedule, Janine had her front door opened with only the storm door closed. She must had been observing and stalking us for quite some times. That night on Sunday, Nov. 24, when I drove up in front of my house with Lyna sitting in the car, like the usual, while I brought up the grocery, Miss Martinez stormed out of her house threatening us and calling me racial named like "chink and punk". Her exact words were, "you still not scared right you fucking chink, you just a punk do you want to me to bring my Bronx posse back over the Thanks Giving holiday". I replied it back with "you did not pay my rent; I can bring whoever I want. Even the landlord or the President of United States cannot tell me what to do". At that moment, she went into a rage and frenzy and ran to the neighbor's lounge metal chair and started swinging at me. I warned her if you hit me I was going to have her arrested. Afterward, she dropped the chair and ran back to her house. After a while, we thought it was "ok" to go back home, so Lyna and I went home. About 45 minutes, apparently, Janine had called the cops to reverse the table by placing the fault on us. The cops never rang our door bell and then they left her place about 20 minutes later. I sat at the window watching them leave.

Lyna and I realized that night, that we needed to make a report with the police and I needed to document this with the Landlord. So I went to the Landlord or Building management on Monday, 25 2013. I wrote brief details hand written documents of the incident and filed it with building management just in case our lives were in danger or my house may get robbed by her posse. I am attaching the copy of the document I wrote to the Landlord or Building Management. On that same evening I went to the police station and reported this incident. You can check complaint. The complaint # is 3910. The next day I received a call from Det. Gano and Heffean, explaining that they would come to my home to listen to our complaint. The next thing I knew, a trumped up charge of harassment was charged against Lyna and an arrest warrant that cleared a long time ago (Lyna will show you all the documents and explain that to you), while Janine, the person who threatened myself and Lyna with her posse and menacing with a chair to hurt us just got a desk job. Janine's threat and swinging of the chair to hit me to me seemed more of a serious crime or felony than the so-called trumped up harassment charge they are charging Lyna.

My guess is that the Detective or the 111 precinct was biased against Lyna. This all goes back to during last year Thanksgiving. An argument broke out between Janine and us. Police was called in and the Police was siding with Janine. As a result of that Lyna tried to call in a captain of the Police Dept. Following that we filed a complaint against the Dept with CCRB. In reality this should have been gone away, if Janine had stopped instigating and threatening Lyna. To defuse the situation, I even bought her children candies and toys. Apparently, Janine saw that as an opportunity to get Lyna in trouble as well as to break us up. Why would she shout and claim I was her "lover" when I hardly knew her or give a damn about her. She also wanted to ban Lyna from coming to my apartment. That is how this whole incident happened as I had described in the above statements.

As stated above, as for the arrest warrant, Lyna will show you all the necessary documents she had gathered that this incident was taken care of long time ago. She went to several County Court houses to get the documents. All the records indicated it was cleared. The clerks in these Court House even commented that this Detective may have manipulated the warrant to just to punish Lyna.

I can be reached at 347-924-1368 if you need to interview me or ask questions. You can also contact Building Manager: Mid Queens LP, 224-30 64th Ave Oakland Gardens, NY 11363. (718) 631-2800.

Jeff Woo

Failed to Do American Citizen

I was not read my rights and was kept there suffering trying to go to bathroom and no phone called Detective Gannan. Vincent Did Not let me use the phone Police station. I told I need to contact my mother, and my friend to notified someone to get me out. The Detective kept asking Personal Question How much money I have bank my Social Security and saying rude comments to me. He brought down in Downstair Jail cell then brought back up Horrible strip search. and ask why am I in here. He said 2 warrant. I finally saw The Judge Goriz. and she said Summons 2007SB002261 you have 2 court day 9am take care of it. December 4, 2014. I left 2am morning out of court and went there with my mother and Red Hook visitation place Brooklyn Court. Your Not to Appear Your name is not on any Sheet's Clerk Office told them about Summons Disorderly conduct Dismiss December 15, 2009. Why are you here it's been Dismiss along time ago. Lied. I did not have to appear at all.

V. Relief:

State what you want the Court to do for you and the amount of monetary compensation, if any, you are seeking, and the basis for such compensation.

I seek 100,000 thousand in being destroyed in my private life and my boyfriend break us up and Reganne bull me to not come around taunting me to fight her. I don't know who she is tip our life I was ever formerly introduce to her. New York Police Department and constantly giving me false pack round to ruin my reputation I don't like any of them asking me out or giving me false warrants to haunt me my family scared and crying my mother suffering for the lies to make me for the laughter.
